DISASTROUS EXPLOSIONS.

Saw-Mill Boiler Lets Go, Killing the Engineer and Fatally Wounding the Owner.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FRANKFORT, Aug. 7.—The quiet town of Mulberry, twelve miles west of this city, was thrown into the wildest excitement this morning by the explosion of the boiler in the Jacoby saw-mill, which resulted in the instant death of the engineer, Jos. Shoemaker, and the tatal injury of the proprietor, John Jacoby. The machinery had just been started for the day's run when the explosion occurred, destroying the building and hurling timbers and pieces of machinery for hundreds of yards about the Shoemaker's body was found mutilated beyond recognition close to the furnace, and Jacoby's a few feet away, scalded and his head horribly crushed. Two little girls, named Collins, whose home adjoins the mill, were playing in the yard, when a heavy piece of the boiler was hurled over their heads, striking only a few feet away, in a pile of lumber. Of the several other employes of the mill none but Martin Rhodes was seriously injured, but it is thought that he will recover.

A Journal special from Lafayette says that Alvin Jacoby was cut and bruised about the head and face, and may recover, that George Keiger was hurt on the hand and a daughter of Albert Collins had a leg broken by flying iron. The explosion was heard for miles. The roof of the building was blown off and scattered over the little town, the dome being found a quarter of a mile from the mill.

Fatal Gas Explosion.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. Kokomo, Aug. 7. - A terrible gas explosion occurred at Terrehall, this county. to-day, and two persons will probably die from the effects. Levi Fenn, while running a traction engine, ran over a highpressure natural-gas pipe. The heavy en-gine wheels broke the pipe, allowing the gas to escape. The fire in the engine fur-nace caused the explosion. Fenn was thrown twenty feet in the air and was burned about the head and bands. He will probably die. His wife, who was ill, is at death's door. Mr. Fenn is a prominent and wealthy citizen, and proprietor of the Terrehall heading and stave-works.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

HARTFORD CITY, Aug. 7.-Milton Vancleave committed suicide this afternoon by shooting himself through the heart, the weapon being a 32-caliber revolver. He left a letter, in which he stated that he did it because of disappointment, last spring, by the marriage of a girl in this city, for whom he had a strong attachment, to another fellow. None of Vancleave's friends knew of his love affair, and think the young lady even knew nothing of it. Vancleave lived with his elder sister, and their property is estimated at $30,000. Six years ago William Vancleave, his brother, committed suicide by shooting himself in the heart. Milton tried to kill himself in 1887, but failed. He was thirty-three years of age, to-day being his birthday.

Out on Bail.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. GREENCASTLE, Aug. 7.-The Indianapolis man who gave the name of Charles Hermann, but whose true name was found to be Charles Frank, was released from jail to-day on giving bail in the sum of $300. Postmaster Hays, who is indemnified by Frank's friends at Indianapolis, yielded to their solicitations by going on his bond. The offense with which Frank is charged was the larceny of a watch, which was abstracted from the pocket of a farmer at the Rushville picnic. The watch was returned to this city from Indianapolis, with the ring wrenched off, and accompanied by the INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 3, 1890.

Horse-Thief Arrested.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. Madison, Aug. 7 .- Mr. Charles Sample and James Armstrong, of Milton township, last night delivered to Sheriff Hoagland Harvey Ostrander, who is charged with horse-stealing. Ostrander belongs about Vevay, but has been working for a farmer near Brooksburg, and stole the horse from the Conway brothers, in Kentucky, oppo-site Brooksburg, and swam the animal across the river to this side. He was tried before 'Squire C. L. Hankins, of Brooksburg, yesterday afternoon, and bound over to the Circuit Court in the sum of $400. He was committed to jail in default of bail.

A Lie Promptly Arrested.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CRAWFORDSVILLE, Aug. 7 .- The campaign liar has commenced to get in his work. It is to the effect that Hon. James A. Mount, State Senator and Republican candidate for Congress in the Eighth district, would not allow his harvest hands to eat in his house, but had their meals carried to the barn. This is a lie from the whole cloth, as the fact about the matter is that every man ate at the same table with Mr. Mount, and always has in past years. Every one of the hired men say this, and they should know more about it than some inventive liar who was miles away.

Is It a Meteoric Stone? Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

GREENFIELD, Aug. 7.—Yesterday morning Mr. T. J. Mitchell, who lives on the National road, three miles east of this city, discovered a large stone weighing 500 or 600 pounds in his corn-field, and as it was not there when he last plowed the field Mr. Mitchell does not know just how to account for its presence. Large numbers of people have seen the stone, and many think it meteoric. Its size, formation and the un-injured condition of the corn seem to preclude the fact of its having been carried there by some men for a joke.

ECHOES OF ELECTRICISION

No Absolute Knowledge of the Amount of Voltage Has Yet Been Gained.

Doctors Succeed in Picking a Personal Quarrel Out of It-Inventors Satisfied with the Result of the First Trial.

AUBURN, N. Y., Aug. 7 .- Warden Durston stated this afternoon that the remains of Kemmler still lie in the room in the prison where the autopsy was held yesterday. He has not decided where the remains will be finally buried.

The subject which continued to excite the greatest interest in connection with the execution is the record of the voltage of the shock which killed him. It has been generally supposed that the first shock was ,300 volts and the second between 1,500 and 2,000. Electrician Barnes, who was in the dynamo room, said to one of the physicians in attendance yesterday that at no time was the voltage more than 1,100, and that it frequently fell to 800. Doctor Daniels, of Buffalo, who performed the delicate work of removing the brain and spinal cord of the dead man at the autopsy, has gone home, taking with him parts of the spinal cord and other specimens for experiment.

Doctors Fighting, of Course.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7 .- Dr. Spitzka, who was present at the execution of William Kemmler, at Auburn prison, yesterday, makes the following statement: "The assertion attributed to a physician from Buffalo that the undersigned ordered currents stopped, or in any way directed the steps rendered necessary at the Kemm-ler execution, is utterly unfounded. No one in the execution chamber knew, or could know, anything about the voltage, nor did any one order the current turned off. It was turned off in accordance with a previous understanding. McDonald and myself (between whom and myself complete harmony existed), in being asked by the warden what time should be taken, agreed to fifteen seconds, and actually seventeen were allowed to elapse. When Kemmler's death appeared doubtful I suggested in a hurried way to the warden to have it instantly turned on again, and it was the warden who gave the order then and there. "I went to Auburn solely to make the examination of the brain, not as an assistant executioner. The dynamo, as judged by the action of Kemmler's body, acted very irregularly. The source of this it will be interesting to ascertain, as well as the ani-mus which dictated the gratuitous and un-true statements of the person alluded to, if really made by him. "As an avowed opponent, and as one known to be such, of the electrical method, I went to Auburn. Under these circumstances it were scarcely consistent for me to volunteer as a performer of that method. Had either my associate, Dr. Carlos Mc-Donald, or myself been able to anticipate such misstatements being made we certainly should have declined to act in the medical capacity which we alone held. My sole suggestion, coincided with by all present, the turning on of the second current. was dictated by humanity and in view of doubts as to complete destruction of life."

father of the electrical execution law, said to-day in an interview: "I feel just as I nothing against the system at all, and the fact is there has been a great deal of senseless sensational talk about the execution. For instance, the big story in regard to the sickening spectacle of froth, salıva, etc., from Kemmler's mouth is ridiculous. It was a perfectly natural thing, and was caused by the muscular contraction of the stomach. It was nothing unusual at all. In fact, a party of ladies could sit in a room where an execution of the kind was going on and not see anything repulsive whatever. If the mistake of ordering off the current so quickly had not been made there would have been none of this talk. The burning of the flesh was also exaggerated. That was caused simply by the fact that the sponge under the electrode was too small."

Not Likely to Be Prosecuted. NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—Acting District Attorney Bedford said to-day that, while the publication of the details of the Kemmler execution was against the law, he thought the public owed a debt of gratitude to the press for detailing the horrors of the new mode of execution. "I would not think of prosecuting any newspaper, but will do so if a test case is desired," he said.

TRACK AND DIAMOND.

Tenny Defeated by Firenzi in a Beatiful Race at South Park.

South Park, N. J., Aug. 7.-A good card and ideal racing weather drew a crowd here to-day that must have numbered nearly ten thousand persons. The loadstone that drew most of them was the Freehold stakes for three-year-olds and up-ward, for which Tenny and Firenzi were probable starters. First Race—Free handicap sweepstakes of $20 each, with $1,000 added; one mile. Chaos won from Defaulter, who beat Bella B. for the place. Time, 1:42. Second Race-The Camden stakes: for two-year-olds: of $50 each, with $1,500 added; three-fourths of a mile. Kildeer won from Peter, who beat Florimore a neck for the place. Time, 1:1514.

Third Race—The Trenton stakes; for three-year-olds, of $50 each, with $1,000 added; one mile and a furlong. Clarendon won from Kempland, who beat the Maxim colt for the place. Time, 2:03. Fourth Race—The Freehold stakes of $50 each, with $1,000 added; for three-yearolds: mile and a half. Judge Morrow was scratched, and it was thus reduced to a match race between Tenny and Firenzi. Firenzi was the first to appear on the track, and she was greeted by loud applause. Then came Tenny, and he was not forgotten. They got the flag at the first attempt, and the mare started out to make the pace, leading from a length to a length and a half. She led to the half, where Garrison let out a link on Tenny and he went up to the mare. Then Murphy let out a link also, and on the upper turn Firenzi shot to the front and gained a clear lead of three lengths, an advantage she held turning into the stretch. Then, however, Tenny commenced to run as the in-terest became intense. Slowly, but surely, Tenny gained ground, and at the last furlong he was lapped on the mare. Then Murphy went to the whip, and the finish was only equaled by that in the Salvator-Tenny match at Sheepshead Bay. A hundred yards from home Tenny was at the mare's saddle-girths, and gaining at every stride. Both jockeys were riding for their lives. and the spectators in the grand-stand were helping them. Hats, canes and handkerchiefs were thrown into the air, and cheer after cheer went up to encourage the struggling giants. Slowly but surely Tenny gained, and fifty yards from the finish his head was at Firenzi's shoulder. Then, if such a thing were possible, Murphy went to work with increased vigor, and, as they shot past the post, Firenzi had a neck the best of it. The crowd seemed to go wild with excitement, and, for fully a minute, cheered again and again for the little mare. The race was a fast one, within a quarter of a second of the record. The fractional time is as follows: Quarter, :26; half, :5012, three-quarters, 1:16: mile, 1:4214; mile and a half, 2:3314.

Fifth Race-Sweepstakes for three-yearolds and upward of $15 each, with $750 added; seven furlongs. Newburg won from Kern, who beat Gray Dawn for the place. Time, 1:2714.

Sixth Race—A sweepstake of $10 each, with $750 added; for all ages; one mile and a furlong. Grimaldi won from Sluggard, who beat Gloaming for the place. Time, 1:55. Seventh Race—Sweepstakes for maidens of $15 each, with $750 added; one mile. Jennie V. won from Chesapeake second, Donley third. Time, 1:4414. At Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 7.-The races at the Driving Park attracted about six thousand have always felt on this matter. There is people. It was a typical racing day, with a hard track, warm sun and little wind, yet the time averaged slow. This was largely due to the fact that in each class one of the horses was so superior to the field that he walked away with the prize as he pleased. Dawson, Hal Pointer and Alfred S. were the winners. Summary:
